Unpleasant Followers

"We'd been shepherding our flock through unfamiliar farmland, prodding and poking the grunting lovelies over root and thicket, when we were set about by villains. It were the Baron's no good Hogsmen.

Thinking quick, as he was like to, Pfelder, my under-lumper, cut one of our flock loose and sent it screeching. The Lump pummelled them swiners with its limbs, like they were nothing, all the while young Pfelder jeering and halooing something rotten. A little too close for my liking."

Muscle-bound Monstrosities: The Lump is a new core Follower unit for Turnip28. Each Lump is wholly unique in appearance, from the strange root creatures and deformed knights of Cist, to the strange fish and oil dredged from the tar pits of Swill.

Horrors beyond imagining: "You ever see a lad shucked miss? Pfelder was turned inside out by them big gnarled teeth. Put me right off my oysters".

Lumps, can be taken as a Follower when building ANY Turnip28 Regiment. When playing in a competitive setting, players should limit themselves to, like Stump guns, to a maximum of 2 Units of Lumps.

Base Size: 40mm/80mm

"Its a lump of something that's for sure."

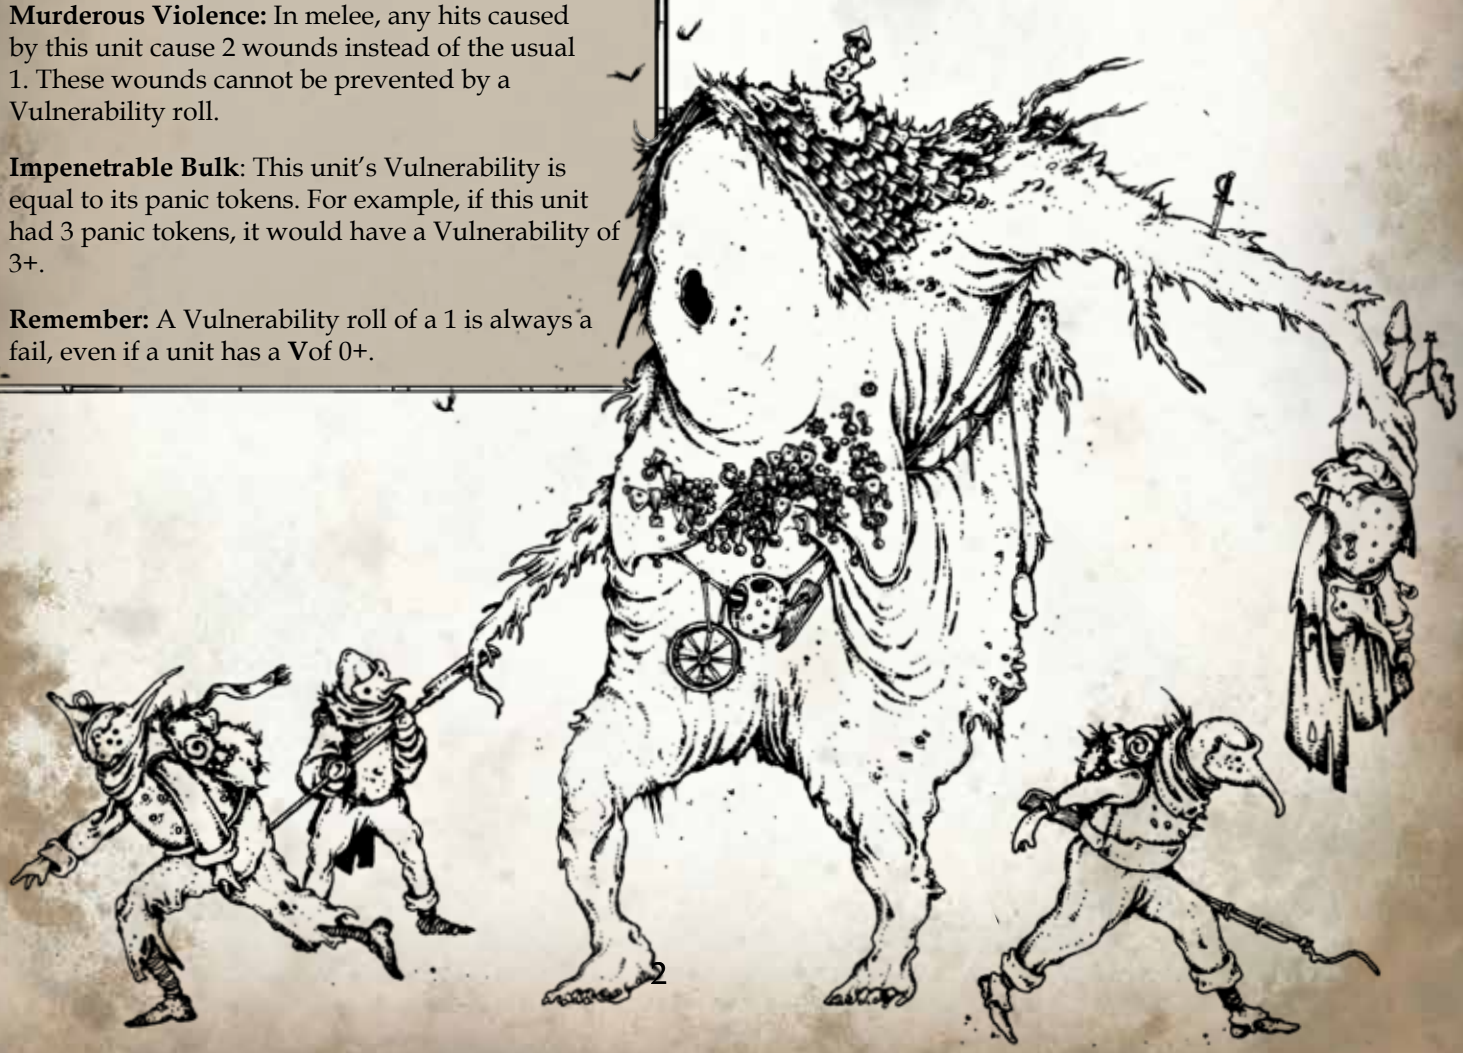
Lumps are considered to be equipped with Close Combat weapons.

Murderous Violence: In melee, any hits caused by this unit cause 2 wounds instead of the usual 1. These wounds cannot be prevented by a Vulnerability roll.

Impenetrable Bulk: This unit's Vulnerability is equal to its panic tokens. For example, if this unit had 3 panic tokens, it would have a Vulnerability of 3+.


Remember: A Vulnerability roll of a 1 is always a fail, even if a unit has a Vof 0+.
